GOLD AND SILVER MINING REGULATIONS PROPOSED

A plan has been formulated to encourage the people of Sinkiang to develop gold and silver mining, which would help schieve economic expansion and currency stabilization. Highlights of the provisional measures, submitted by Liu Te-en, deputy chief of the Reconstruction Department, to the Finance and account Subcommittee for consideration, are as follows:

A. Gold Mining

with the exception of the rich gold mining region of Ch'eng-hua, the following regulations shall apply to mines in Ts'ac-erh-k'a-k'c, A-t'i-ch'ang, and Ch'i-erh-kan under the control of Min-feng Hsien; Chia-p'a and A-erh-chia-shan under the control of Ch'ieh-mo Hsien; Tse-li-k'o under the control of Yu-t'ien Hsien; and Wu-lu-k'o, A-erh-c, etc., under the control of Mo-yu Hsien.

- 1. Use propeganda to stimm'ate productive effort among the workers.
- 2. The supply of staple goods and cloth to the miners shall be handled by merchants.
- 3. All extracted one shall be sold to the government. Frivate dealings in gold are forbidien and violators shall be punished. (Regulations concerning punishment shall be set up separately.)
- 4. Financial planning shall be left up to the people themselves. If a loan is required, they should seek a satisfactory and reliable transaction.
- 5. The price of gold shall be settled in accordance with current conditions by the Ho-t'ien Gold-Mining Bureau and a group winers.
- 6. Functions mentioned in the preceding paragraphs shall be placed under the supervision of the No-wiew Gold-Mining Bureau. (Regulations concerning this bureau will be determined separately.)

With the exception of gold-mining regions designated above, private operation of other gold mining areas is permitted. If the quantity of production is great, then these regulations shall be applied. Material to be used by private operators shall not be granted before extraction is actually begun. Ore extracted must slso be sold to the government at market price.

Ba Silver Mining

The Provincial Government shall undertake the mining of silver in Ch'ich-mo Hsien. A temporary Silver-Mining Bureau will be established by the Reconstruction and Finance Departments. Technical personnel for this bureau will be recruited from Ti-hua. Miners will be hired from among the local citizenry and will be given good treatment.

A similar mining bureau will be set up at other mines, such as the K'u-mi-shih Silver Mine, which is under the joint jurisdiction of Shan-shan, Wei-li, and T'o-k'o-hsun hsiens, if their production proves flourishing.
